PROJECTS

Sharp Spa

Developed a captivating ReactJS-based single-page website for Sharp Natural Spa, aiming to deliver a seamless browsing experience. Employed responsive design principles to ensure optimal performance across various devices, prioritizing user accessibility

Steer X

Designed and developed the Steer X car service website using Sass and JavaScript to enhance styling and interactivity. Leveraged Sass for efficient CSS preprocessing, allowing for easier maintenance and scalability of stylesheets. Integrated JavaScript functionalities to improve user experience and streamline navigation across the site.

ABOUT

I'm Buvenes, and I've ventured into front-end development with a passion for video games and a desire to create my own. As a newcomer to this field, I'm taking the first steps in web development to build a solid foundation. You can check out my works in the link to my website.
